

Introduction of ASPA Awards 2011

Asian Science Park Association

I . General Information on ‘ASPA Awards’

1. Purpose

- By awarding Science Parks and Venture Companies in Asia which have great management skills and excellent technological ideas, ASPA inspires more SMEs to pursue strategic and highly-specialized managements. At the same time, ASPA aims to disseminate their useful ideas and know-how and share them with the professionals of STPs.
- ASPA Awards allows prospective enterprises and STPs to get together and network for collaboration with business partners. It also suggests not only a new model of SME’s fast growth and regional development, but their experienced practices of business managements which are applicable to the new companies.
- ASPA encourages business network between organization members and tenant companies and promotes the revitalization of Cyber Market on the ASPA website.

2. Benefits for Winners

- Winners get a chance to publicize their companies, products and technologies in front of the related people of STPs, research institutes, business incubators and other relevant organizations.
- Through the ASPA Newsletter and Webzine which are distributed in the Asian region, winners can publicize the information of their companies.
- ASPA will fully support the winners to participate in the business matching event which are held in the various Asian countries.
